

What is a documentary?

- A mini documentary is a great way to share your story if you don't have the time or budget (or need) for a full length feature documentary. The length of a mini documentary might be anywhere from 2-25 minutes. A mini-documentary might also be referred to as a short film or mini-doc.

What is the purpose of a documentary?

- Many documentary filmmakers attempt to change or improve society in some way with their documentaries. Their goal is to bring to light a certain cause or injustice with the hope that their film will help galvanize the masses to demand change.
-

The purpose of our documentary is...

- To provide information to school children in Germany, Greece, Iceland and Portugal.
 - In our documentary, we will speak about our school, city and country.
 - What information could we speak about in our documentary?
- 